

SOCIAL DOINGS OF THE WEEK

Kilgariff-Wood

Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the manse, the Rev. Alfred E. Vanorder, D. D., united in marriage Mr. Adam E. Kilgariff and Miss Pearl Irene Wood, both of Solomon, where there will reside on a farm. The young people left for a trip to Kansas City. The bride's mother and sister witnessed the ceremony.—Sahlin Journal.

Pledges Phi Sigma Phi

Phi Sigma Phi, a local fraternity at the University of Kansas, announces the pledging of Hugh Gavie of this city, a sophomore in the engineering school.

Miss Ethel Thayer, Librarian

Miss Ethel Thayer of this city, for several years assistant librarian in the Abilene public library, now holds the position of first children's librarian in Wichita's large Carnegie and city institution. Miss Thayer has been there since last September and judging from the Wichita Beacon, of a recent date which has her picture printed, she is well liked and is making good. Since leaving here she was for some time in charge of the city library at Morris, Illinois. She came from Elmore, N. Y., where her parents now reside, to Wichita to accept the position awaiting her there. Miss Thayer's many Abilene friends are glad to hear of her success in her chosen work. Work with the children and their reading has always been her choice and she is well placed.

Travelers and Boosters

The Boosters will entertain the Travelers, two sections of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce, at a dinner and smoker this evening at 6:30 in the banquet rooms of the Masonic Temple. The Eastern Star will serve the dinner. The Boosters are seeking to promote a spirit of fellowship and cooperation among the members of the Chamber and the tonsils this evening will ring with that spirit. President Frank Geoffrey of the Boosters and President A. W. Cochrane of the Travelers will start off the speeches for the organizations. They will sit down to dinner promptly at six thirty.

Farewell Party

Tuesday, February 15, the members and their husbands of the Sunshine club planned and very successfully carried out a delightful surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burkholder, who will soon leave the vicinity. Everyone did justice to the bounteous dinner prepared by the ladies. The afternoon was spent in conversation and needlework. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Burkholder and George William, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ingall and Lena, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meier and Percy, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meier, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chase, Arlene and Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Teeters, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Amsbaugh, Ruth Ruby and Wilma; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heinz and Clara, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Copeland and Glenn and Dana, Mr. Shuey, Misses Gertrude and Edna Shuey, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burdick. The visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Evans, Mrs. Ramsey, Nevada, Mo.; Miss Sarah Kreider, Wakefield, Kan.; Harry Brenizer, Abilene; Clarence Meier, Manchester, Mo.; Mrs. Evans was voted a member of the club and properly initiated. All departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Burkholder success in their new home.

Sparks-Davis

Enterprise Push: Miss Geneva M. Sparks and Walter R. Davis were quietly married by Rev. C. G. Meyer at the parsonage. They have rented rooms in the Miller property and expect to move in the latter part of this week. Mrs. Davis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sparks and has grown to womanhood in Enterprise. Dr. Davis is an employee at the Hoffman mill, and as a token of their esteem the mill boys purchased a set of dishes and a rocking chair as a gift for the bride and groom.

Paul-Zook

A very pretty home wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents when Miss Emma Paul and Mr. Harvey Zook were united in marriage by Rev. C. B. Zook, uncle of the groom, assisted by Rev. Dr. D. C. Dutton. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Frank Hollar. The bride-maids were Miss Freda Paul, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Zook, sister of the groom. The groom's attendants were Mr. William Paul, brother of the bride, and Mr. Harrison Zook, brother of the groom. The bride's party stood beneath a hower of green and white with a large white bell in the center. Following congratulations came the throwing of the bouquet which was caught by Miss Freda Paul, after which a dainty three course supper was served to fifty-five guests. The bride looked very attractive in a gown of white silk crepe de chine trimmed with white satin. She wore a veil of embroidered net and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaids wore white voile trimmed with blue and carried white carnations. The house was beautifully decorated in blue and white, this color scheme being carried out on the tables. Each table had as a center piece a vase of white carnations within a wreath of smilax. The wedding cake of the same color adorned the bride's table. Mrs. Zook is one of North Dickinson's most popular young ladies and has a large circle of friends in that vicinity. Mr. Zook is a prosperous young farmer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Zook and has lived all his life north of Abilene where he has many friends. The out of town guests were Miss Laura Paul of Gardon, Neb., and Rev. C. B. Zook of Iola, Kansas.

Judge Rankin Married

Mr. John Karl Rankin, formerly of this county and who was probate judge for two terms, was married Friday afternoon at Topeka to Miss Elizabeth Barbour Alderson, daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. S. B. Alderson. The father of the bride, formerly a pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Topeka, read the single ring ceremony. The wedding was attended by friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom. The guests were received by the Reverend and Mrs. Alderson and Mr. Emmett Rankin and Miss Della Rankin, brother and sister of the bridegroom. Miss Alderson was married in a charming spring suit of brown satin worn with chic brown hat and black kid shoes stitched in white. The coat of her costume was made in three-quarter length and was trimmed with beaver bands. Her blouse was of brown net, built with high neck, and ornamented with satin ribbon. Her small hat of brown satin was ornamented with silver and gray flowers. She wore a corsage of pink sweet peas. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Rankin will return to Topeka to make their home at 514 Harrison street. Mr. Rankin is a practicing lawyer of that city. His bride is identified with musical circles. Abilene friends extend good wishes.

A Birthday Dinner

One of the enjoyable times of life was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haffa of this city Sunday when they were visited by a number of their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, who could arrange to attend the reunion at this time. The day was perfect as was also the dinner which was served. We have heard of the tables groaning under the weight of good eatables on such occasions, but in this case the partakers done the groaning. It being near "mother's" birthday the children and father presented her with a new India paper edition of the Bible and all who know her know that this is a present which will be used a great deal. Those who were present were: W. A. Haffa, Aurora, Mo.; Mrs. R. J. Newsome, Dunkerton, Iowa; C. D. Haffa, Russell, Kan.; R. J. Haffa, Miltonvale, Kan.; F. R. Lewis, Salina, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewis and children, Sylvan Grove, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Blaesi and children of Abilene.—C. D. H.

Double Wedding

Hope Dispatch: A double wedding occurred at the German Lutheran church southwest of Hope when Miss Mary S. W. Mueller and Mr. Herman Bentz, and Miss Matilda A. Bielefeldt and Mr. Henry F. K. Mueller were married. The Rev. Mr. Stemmerman, resident pastor of the church officiating. After the services at the church the guests and couples went to the Mueller home on Turkey creek where the occasion was celebrated in the usual happy manner. A big wedding dinner was served to about one hundred and fifty guests.

Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Capsey gave a delightful birthday party at their home, 105 South Buckeye, for their son Vincent, it being his tenth birthday. Dainty refreshments were served and the table decorations were carried out in honor of George Washington.

Entertained Teachers

Miss Charlotte Northcraft entertained the teachers of the intermediate department of the Methodist Sunday school at a Washington party at her home on North Cedar street. The evening was spent in a delightful social way and in discussion of Sunday school affairs. Dr. Dutton gave a short talk. The decorations used and the refreshments served were in keeping and appropriate to the season. Miss Northcraft is superintendent of the intermediate department.

Lake-Coulson

Manchester Motor: Mr. Bert Coulson and Miss Grace Lake were united in marriage at the home of Rev. B. F. Dice. Mr. Coulson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Coulson and his bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lake. Both are among the prominent young people of the Mayfield neighborhood and will continue to reside there.

Better Babies Week

The City Federation of Women's clubs, cooperating with other like organizations in a statewide movement will observe the first week in March as Better Babies Week. No hard and fast regulations have been laid down for its observance and recommendations vary from publicity work to holding better babies clinics under the direction of local physicians.

A model program to be used by Kansas clubs in the observance of the national federation baby week has been prepared by the home economics extension division of the state agricultural college, of which Miss Frances Brown is director. The program is approved by Mrs. J. M. Miller of Council Grove, president of the Kansas Federation, and Dr. Lydia A. DeVillias, head of the state division of child hygiene, and is recommended for club meetings to be held during baby week.

Roll call, answered by each member naming some article that should be included in an infant's layette, or used about the baby; paper, prenatal care and influence; paper, infant mortality; paper, artificial feeding of infants; debate. Resolved that baby contests are injurious to the best interests of the baby; paper, scoring the babies, and score cards. Discussion (five minutes each): A baby's early training, a. when to begin character building; b. entertainment for the baby; c. forcing the baby to grow or develop; d. establishment of good habits of eating, drinking, sleeping, etc.; e. feeding after infancy; f. the power of example.

Valentine-Washington Party

The members of the Luther League, not to be disappointed in their Valentine party, which was postponed indefinitely because of the home talent play, held it last evening at the church. Features of a Washington's birthday function were combined with the first purpose and an ideal time was enjoyed by those who were present. The two-fold seasonal chances for entertainment and games made it a very delightful and entertaining affair.

Washington Party

Miss Pearl Garver entertained fourteen friends at a Washington birthday party last evening at her home on East Seventh street. The time was delightfully spent at games and music. Dainty refreshments were served. The souvenirs were tiny Washington hatchets and the honors in games won by Miss Cora Engle, Miss Zoah Ford and Mr. A. W. Davis were characteristic of the season and day.

Home Economics Lecture

That there is a great interest on the part of the women of Abilene in the domestic science and art subjects, was manifested yesterday afternoon when 275 of them filled the auditorium at the high school to hear Miss Elizabeth Sprague of the University of Kansas lecture on that work which is being carried on in the school and the homes. She gave an interesting and instructive account of the research work being done in the home economics department at the University at Lawrence and of the efforts of those engaged to put the cooking in the home on a more scientific basis. The domestic art girls had an exhibit of sewing and work done in their department that attracted much attention. Girls dressed in Colonial costumes of the days of Martha Washington served tea to the visitors. Miss Sprague was gratified with the work being accomplished in this department in the high school. Much credit is due the girls and their instructor, Miss Gertrude Hazen, for giving the women of the city an opportunity of hearing such a splendid and noted authority, as Miss Sprague.

Burch-Quayle

Miss Allie Gayle Quayle of St. Paul, Minn., daughter of Bishop and Mrs. William A. Quayle, and Mr. Arthur C. Burch of Evanston, Ill., will be married Thursday, February 24. Bishop Quayle is one of the best known men in Methodist circles in America. He is a native Kansan and received a part of his education at Baker university. Mr. Burch and his bride will take a wedding trip to the West Indies.

Entertained for Mrs. Charles Lee Mrs. Robert Baker entertained the neighbor ladies of Hayes Friday afternoon at her home in honor of Mrs. Charles Lee, whose home is in California, and who is visiting her at present. A very pleasant afternoon was spent by the ladies. A delicious three course dinner was served by the hostess. Those present were Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. Richard Baker, Mrs. J. R. Blair, Mrs. E. H. Sampson and Miss Isabelle, Mrs. G. W. Kelley, Mrs. M. A. Woodson, Mrs. A. H. Long, Mrs. C. A. Ingersoll, Mrs. Robert Baker and Miss Jean.

A delightful reception was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. L. Mitchell at Talmage, in honor of Mrs. J. E. Engle who is there visiting from Atlanta, Kan., and Mrs. T. J. Fulton who will soon move to western Kansas. The afternoon was spent in social conversation and music and readings. Refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames, May Parrish, Webb, F. S. Houser, Forest Saylor, J. F. Stewart, A. E. Carnine, Myrtle Caywood, Seth Barter, S. A. Romberger, J. E. Engle, J. B. Higdon, G. H. Cheney, H. L. Schleich, J. H. Hiff, A. Faron, R. N. Montague, A. L. Ramsey, P. G. Hewitt, W. B. Higdon, W. R. Edwards, C. H. Naylor, J. S. Vandusen, T. J. Fulton, A. C. Bathurst, J. E. Fraser, George Gibson, Harry Moore, John Garver, Walter Watt, John Book, A. D. Steele, J. A. Engle, H. L. Mitchell.

PLACING THE STEEL WORK AT LYRIC THEATRE

The large steel I beams used in the construction of the Lyric theatre building are being put in position. The three beams weigh 3840 pounds each and special derricks have to be erected at the three different places where the beams are to be placed. The beams form the suspending structure for the floor of the air dome which will be on the roof. Ed. Franks, as a sub-contractor, has charge of placing the steel work.

Death of Mrs. Harry Rice Relatives here received word yesterday afternoon of the death of Mrs. Harry Rice at Ellsworth, Kan. Her husband is a nephew of A. W. Rice and a cousin of Mrs. E. B. Mallott of this city, who will probably attend funeral services at Ellsworth.
